

‘Joy In Living Practices Of Mindful Soul-Care’

Mindfulness is the practice of purposely focusing your attention on the present moment. Research has found it to be a key element in vibrant health and happiness. Being mindful makes it easier for you to savor life as it occurs; become more vibrantly engaged in life; create resiliency and a greater capacity to deal with ‘challenging’ experiences, and form a deeper soulful connection with yourself and others.

 PLACING YOUR HAND ON YOUR BEAUTIFUL HEART*

- * PAYING ATTENTION*
- * ‘MINDFUL’ BREATHING*
- * LISTENING*
- * PAUSING - BEFORE YOU SAY ‘YES’*
- * SAVORING & CELEBRATING*
- * LAUGHTER & PLAY*
- * STEPPING INTO NATURE*
- * COMPASSION & LOVING KINDNESS*
- * JOURNALING*
- * SETTING INTENTION*
- * DESIGNING & CREATING*
- * RECEIVING*
- * NOTICING/OBSERVING*
- * PRAYER & MEDITATION*
- * GRATITUDE & APPRECIATION*
- * REFRAMING*
- * MEDICATION IN MOTION*
- * HYDRATING*
- * ‘SOUND’ NUTRITION*
- * FORGIVING*
- * MINDING YOUR OWN JOURNEY*
- * VISUALIZING*
- * WONDERING WITH CURIOSITY*
- * TAPPING (EFT)*

 IDENTIFYING BELIEFS & INNER DIALOGUE*

“The path to health for mind, body and spirit is not to mourn for the past, not to worry about the future, but to live mindfully in the present moment, with gratitude, joy and loving kindness.” - Anna Corbett

Anna Corbett, MS, BCC www.joyinliving.com 949-436-2662 anna@joyinliving.com